Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 0900 hrs

There are no protesters on the Hill and less than 100 people in and around the Wellington/Elgin corridor.

There has been no change in the current perimeter. OPS and our city partners have further hardened a few smaller access points to the inner footprint. We are holding Wellington/Rideau from Bay to Dalhousie; Wellington south to Albert, inclusive of the related Elgin Corridor. Mackenzie and Sussex held between Murray and Rideau. There are still approximately 500 Trucks in the core

We currently have approximately 100 officers deployed at static traffic positions, QRT and roving relief. This is inclusive of OPP resources. This does not include POU, PLT, Command or planning support groups numbers.

Traffic officers are engaged on a day and afternoon shift but in slightly reduced numbers to facilitate some forced rest for members.

FLD is engaged and will be working on enforcement strategies on the periphery working inwards.???

There are two POU scheduled for late morning into the early evening.

RCMP, OPP and multiple agencies from the city continue to work collaboratively at the NCRCC.

PLT will be consolidating resources with OPP PLT and enhancing integrated response to managing the different issues.

Parliament is continuing with no issues reported with respect to access by MP's or Senators.

Public Works has fenced off the interior area of the National War Memorial.

Ongoing work between NCC, PLT and OPS to develop a removal plan for the structure at Confederation park, which will include a safety plan.
